The California Museum presents the work of Co-Madres Artistas in Mas Chisme de la Cultura/Spinning Cultural Stories to commemorate Hispanic Heritage Month. The local Sacramento collective -- Irma Barbosa, Carmel Castillo, Mareia de Socorro, Laura Llano and Helen Villa -- have been leaders in Sacramento's Chicana art movement for twenty years. Speaking to themes of Latina pride, feminism and community activism, over 20 of their original and engaging paintings will be displayed through November 13, 2011.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 2011
OPENING RECEPTION 5PM-7PM
