

Welcome to English 2XL! The summer reading texts are listed below.

SUMMER READING

1. This summer, all sophomores are required to read Unbroken by Laura Hillenbrand. This book will be addressed in many of your classes next year (including English) and it will be referenced throughout the year in various programs; therefore, it is important that you carefully read this text.

2. For English 2XL, you are also required to read The Martian Chronicles by Ray Bradbury [ISBN 1451678193]. Double check the ISBN to ensure that you have purchased the correct paper version of the text (no eBook or PDF allowed). You may opt to buy a used book if the ISBN is correct and the book has not already been annotated (since you will be annotating your texts in 2XL).

3. Assignment: Be sure to carefully annotate The Martian Chronicles as you read. Annotations should reveal your level of engagement with the text (do NOT simply underline and/or highlight). When annotating, be sure to

- Circle unfamiliar words. Try to figure out their meanings through context, and then look them up in the dictionary. Record the definitions in your book.
- Summarize plot development and character descriptions in the margins.
- Take note of any quotations that reveal new meanings or character insight; these will be useful for class discussion and essay writing.
- Trace themes, symbols and motifs throughout the story.
- Mark any passages that confuse or interest you.

3. Assessment: In the first few days of school, you will be tested on your understanding of The Martian Chronicles. You will take an objective test (multiple choice), and you will write about the novel. You will also write an essay about Unbroken.
