Dear Friends,

Welcome to our 64th annual Christmas Tree Lane, supporting the mission of Jesuit High School. This year, we are pleased to present this event on our campus in the historic Fr. Barry Gymnasium and our new Welcome Center (formerly the Little Theater).

Loyola Guild has hosted this wonderful event since 1956, and the annual celebration of Christmas Tree Lane represents the oldest tradition of our school community. Begun as a fundraiser seven years before we welcomed our first class of students, Christmas Tree Lane is a testimony to the power of dreams as well as an acknowledgment of the work necessary to make those dreams come true.

Christmas Tree Lane would not have been possible but for the enthusiastic dedication of our Christmas Tree Lane Chairwomen: Nancy Dyer, Kari Goodwin and Christy Reid. I offer them my sincere gratitude and heartfelt congratulations!

I am most grateful to the generations of Loyola Guild members who have partnered with the Jesuits and with our faculty and staff, all of whom have done so much to make Jesuit High School a beacon of excellence in our Sacramento Region. I would like to thank Kelly Heisinger, President of Loyola Guild, and all of our dedicated Loyola Guild members.

Jesuit High School is a regional school like no other that provides young men with a life-building experience. Teachers and staff encourage our students to be compassionate leaders who are open to growth, intellectually prepared, faith filled, loving, committed to justice, and dedicated to service. Jesuit students and our graduates strive to be “Men for Others”—people of conscience, competence, honesty, integrity and respect.

Thank you to all of our friends and guests for supporting our educational program at Jesuit High School through your participation in Christmas Tree Lane. Your generosity helps us provide a tuition assistance program for qualified students who might otherwise not be able to attend our school.

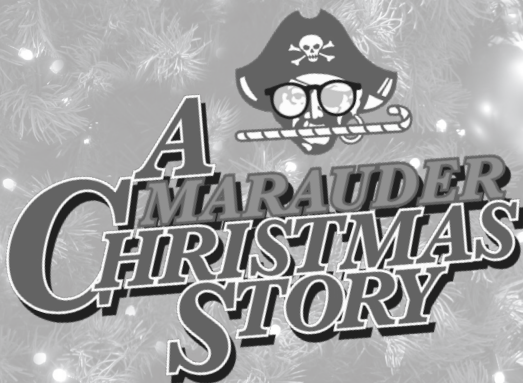

May God bless you and your families during the Christmas Season and throughout the coming New Year!

Rev. John P. McGarry, S.J.

Loyola Guild

OF
JESUIT HIGH SCHOOL

On behalf of the Loyola Guild we'd like to welcome you to the 64th Annual Christmas Tree Lane!

We are grateful to have been able to continue this cherished Jesuit High School tradition. Year after year our senior boys and St. Francis girls look forward to participating and bonding in the production of the show. Although many adjustments had to be made, the tradition continues welcoming the holiday season and raising funds that directly benefit many of our students.

Our sincerest gratitude to our committee members, our vendors, our very talented choreographer Lisa Schwan, and to our donors and sponsors. Special thanks to the JHS staff for their continued support and to our Loyola Guild President Kelly Heisinger for her tireless commitment to keeping the tradition alive. With little time but an enormous amount of effort and support, CTL "A Marauder Christmas Story" came together! This is a true testament to the unique spirit of the JHS community and how important it is now more than ever to come together, embrace our loved ones, and count our many many blessings.

Warmest regards,

Nancy Dyer (Christian '16, Jack '22)

Kari Goodwin (Max '23)

Christy Reid (Johnny '22)
