

High School Seniors - Take Note!

You may be eligible for a significant tuition break in fourteen western states!

How is this possible?

Through the Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE) students in western states (including California) eligible students may be awarded WUE status to enroll in participating four-year and two-year public college programs at a reduced tuition level: 150% of the institution's regular resident tuition.

How do I know if I am eligible?

Many institutions require evidence of academic performance, such as strong ACT/SAT test scores or high school GPA, or place other conditions on WUE enrollment. Consult the WUE Bulletin at www.wiche.edu/wue and contact the admissions office of the school you are interested in for more details. Don't delay. Many schools grant WUE rates to a limited number of eligible students.

How significant is the tuition break?

In all cases, WUE tuition is considerably less than nonresident tuition. Example:

University of Nevada, Reno 2018-2019 Annual Expenses
	Resident	WUE	Non-resident
Tuition/Fees	$7,764	$11,124	$22,236
Books	$1,300	$1,300	$1,300
Total	$9,064	$12,424	$23,536

Which schools and what kind of programs are we talking about here? See the back side of this flyer for a list of several four-year colleges and universities participating in this tuition reduction program. There are dozens of two-year schools participating as well. Some institutions have opened their entire curriculum on a space-available or first-come, first-served basis; others offer only designated programs or majors. See the WUE website at www.wiche.edu/wue and/or the college website to learn if your area of interest is eligible.

How do I apply?

Apply for admission and WUE tuition status directly to the institution(s) of your choice. Mark prominently on the institution's application form that you seek admission as a WUE student. Consult the college or university website for any additional requirements.
